NEWS

- Bitkey launches private collaborative multisig — "Not Our Keys, Not Our Business"
- First wallet to use Chain Code Delegation (new BIP) for privacy in multisig
- Keeps complete chain codes private so only the wallet owner sees balance/history
- Built on open standards — BIP is public for anyone to adopt
- bitkey.build/not-our-keys-not-our-business/

HISTORY

- On February 11, 2009, Satoshi Nakamoto posted the first announcement of Bitcoin on the P2P Foundation forum, introducing it to a wider audience beyond the cypherpunk mailing list.
- February 6, 2010 is when the first Bitcoin exchange, Bitcoin Market, was proposed (it launched shortly after).
- February 9, 2011, Bitcoin hit $1.00 for the first time on the Mt. Gox exchange — a psychological milestone.
- And a darker but important one: February 24, 2014 marks when Mt. Gox went offline for good, filing for bankruptcy after losing around 850,000 BTC, which became a defining cautionary moment for the ecosystem around custodial risk and "not your keys, not your coins."

FUTURE TECH

- Fedimint — federated Ecash mints built on Bitcoin and Lightning.
- Community custody model where a group of trusted guardians manages funds, and users transact with Chaumian Ecash tokens for strong privacy.
- It sits at the intersection of Bitcoin, privacy, and community trust

DEMO

- SeedSigner — an open-source, air-gapped Bitcoin hardware signing device you build with a Raspberry Pi
- Stateless signing device, keys are stored separately
